On May 11, 2020, Terry Lee Colver filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Guillain-Barré syndrome following the receipt of an influenza vaccine administered on September 13, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 12, 2021, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for GBS. On April 20, 2023, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $124,500.00 (consisting of compensation for pain and suffering). Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $124,500.00 (consisting of compensation for pain and suffering) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³
